Employee Matters Acquires Master HR Solutions Client Base

Employee Matters is pleased to announce the acquisition of Master HR Solutions' client base this week.

Employee Matters is a reputable HR consultancy company that has been assisting businesses build employee assets for over seven years. The company has been looking to build on the current growth it has been experiencing by expanding more aggressively into the Victorian market. It has now taken over the clients of Master HR Solutions, a business with the same target market as Employee Matters, but with a strong client base in Victoria, in addition to NSW and remote areas around Australia.

According to Employee Matters' Managing Director, Natasha Hawker, further acquisitions are planned over the next few years for the company to further enhance its sales and revenue and enable Employee Matters to assist more businesses achieve success through their employees. Hawker believes this acquisition will lead to enhanced credibility and revenue growth for Employee Matters and the future looks very promising. "We have been experiencing rapid growth over the last couple of years, in the order of 30% to 40%, so this acquisition will definitely help us continue on that path."

With this acquisition, Employee Matters has taken into its fold the talented employees working for Master HR Solutions, to ensure a seamless transition of services and spearhead the growth of its client portfolio in Victoria. The organisation structure, says Hawker, will change slightly with the new Victorian employee experts reporting to Paul Ackerman, the Victorian State Manager.
